ALLIES STRIKE TELLING BLOWS

SUCCESSFUL AT ALL POINTS. WHERE GERMANS INTEND TO MAKE STAND VERY UNCERTAIN.

(Associated Press War Summary)

At no place along the battle line extending from Soissons to Flanders has the enemy been able to resist the Allied armies in sufficient strength to cause a halt in the offensive movement. Germans after repeated defeats at various points have given much ground apparently content to cover their retreat with rear guard actions. Where, if at all, the Germans intend to make a determined stand is still problematical. Failure to counter attack for possession of the Brocourt-Queant switch line gives credence to unofficial reports that still another line is being prepared from Brebieres to Moeuvres.

While great progress continues southeast of Arras, momentous events apparently are impending north of Soissons. General Mangin has been pushing forward here for several days until he now holds the key position to the Vesle front. The Germans have been forced out of the Ailette river sector and Hindenburg line and their main defenses are endangered.

It was unofficially announced from London Tuesday that Lens had been captured by the British, but this turned out to be inaccurate. General Haig in his official report Tuesday night announced that the British had pushed into the western outskirts of the town and had advanced slightly on both sides of it. The advance here is insufficient to make a showing on the map. However, Lens is likely to be abandoned by the Germans at any time.

BRITISH REACH CANAL DU NORD

London, September 4.—In their push beyond the Dro-court-Queant line the British have reached the line of the Canal Du Nord, according to Field Marshall Haig's official statement. North of the Arras-Cambrai road they have occupied the town of Ecourt St. Quentin. North of Peronne the British advanced through the Vaux woods, above Moislans. Continuing their advance in Flanders they are approaching Neuve Chappelle and Laventie.

Progress of British

London, Sept. 4 (1 P. M.).—The British have secured a hold on the west bank of the Canal Du Nord by taking Rumaucourt, which is north of Sains-Les-Marquion, according to advices from the battle front. Farther south along the canal they are reported to have captured Inchy En Artois, Demicourt, to east of Doignies, and Pernies three miles northeast of Bertincourt. Near the Somme the British have crossed the canal at Haut Allaines, which is slightly over two miles north of Peronne.

French Continue Drive

Paris, Sept. 4.—The French last night continued to push back the Germans to the east of the Canal Du Nord and between the Ailette and Aisne, says today's official statement. In their advance the French took Chapitrevood northeast of Chevilly and approached the town of Crisoles, three miles north of Noyon. North of the Ailette river, the French reached the outskirts of Coucy-Le-Chateau and Juvincourt. Prisoners to the number of 1,500 were taken. Along the Vesle French parties crossed the river at several points.

S. A. T. C. INSURES FOOTBALL AT E. C. S. N.

During the past several months it has been a question with the Normal school authorities as to whether or not it would be advisable to try to have football this fall. They realize that many of the boys would be called to the army. It was questionable whether there would be material to make a team. However, with the establishment of the Students' Army Training Corps and the further fact that the government is encouraging athletics in school, it is planned to take up this important form of athletic activity this fall. Professor R. S.

Newcomb, who succeeds Glen Clark as head of the mathematics and athletic coach, will have charge of the team. Professor Newcomb has had good training in athletics. He was boy scout leader one year at Springfield, Mo., and was also boy play director at the State Normal school. While he was superintendent of schools at Marshfield, Mo., he coached the high school football team and for two years he had the best high school football team in South Missouri, defeating Carthage, Aurora, and Springfield High school teams. With the hearty backing that he will receive, and the old-time "pep" of the players, it is believed that he will develop a winning team.

MASS MEETING CALLED TONIGHT

WILL DISCUSS MATTER OF STUDENTS' ARMY TRAINING CORPS AT NORMAL.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce met at the News office this morning to discuss with President Gordon the Students' Army Training Corps to be organized at the Normal school. It is realized that not only will the training corps be helpful to the Normal but it will be a distinct asset to the town. Ada has done her work nobly in Liberty Loan subscriptions, war savings stamps, Red Cross, and Y. M. C. A. work. It is felt, however, that a company of real United States soldiers in her midst would be an inspiration such as practically nothing else could be. Furthermore, the young men of Ada who join the army will soon go across the water in all probability. It will be a distinct advantage to them to spend as much time as possible in their home town while they receive their training for work overseas.

It was agreed in the conference that the matter is of so much interest and importance that the entire town would like to know the details. It was suggested that a mass meeting be called at the court house tonight in which a full discussion would be had of the matter. Secretary O. N. Walker will see to it that the court room is seated. Every man and woman interested, either from the standpoint of the town or from the standpoint of their own sons or brothers who are soon to be called to the army are invited to be present. The meeting will be called at 8:30 tonight.

37 YOUNG MEN GO TO CAMP LOGAN

Eels for Canning.

Canned and oiled eels are new enterprises talked of in Japanese fishing circles, as these fish are found almost everywhere along the coast. At present only a limited amount of each year's catch is eaten, by far the larger proportion being used for fertilizer.

WHY THE NEWS IS SHORT.

Owing to wire trouble and the fact that the government was using them this afternoon the News failed to receive about a third of its usual amount of telegraph dispatches today, hence the shortage in this line.

MILLION RAILROAD MEN TO SHARE IN NEW WAGE INCREASE

Washington, Sept. 4.—Nearly 1,000,000 men, or half the railroad employees in the United States, share in additional wage increases approved today by Director General McAdoo for track laborers, watchmen, other maintenance of way employees, clerks, station agents and other classes of employees drawing relatively lower pay.

The new increases, the second granted in supplement to the government's general wage order, will add nearly $100,000,000 to the annual railroad pay rolls, it is said. Most of the increases range from 10 to 30 per cent above present wages.

Details of the new order will be announced tomorrow. The Director General adopted most of the recommendation of the Board of Railroad Wages and Working Conditions which investigated requests of employees for more pay. Pay increases for railroad telegraphers are the subject of another report to be made soon to the director general.

TELLS OF THIRTY-TWO YEARS OF TROUBLE

Dunavant Free From Rheumatism First Time Since He Was Seven Years Old—Tanlac Only Thing Helped Him.

"I am free from rheumatism for the first time in thirty-two years, since taking this Tanlac," said B. N. Dunavant, 934 Juhl Place, Memphis Tennessee.

"When I was seven years old, I was taken down with rheumatism," he continued, "and for two years I was unable to walk and had to be carried about by a nurse. I had it in three forms, muscular, sciatic and inflammatory and I simply suffered agony from head to foot. I was down from two to three months at a time, unable to do anything and my left arm got so I couldn't raise it from my side. Many a night I suffered so I couldn't sleep a wink and would have to get up and walk the floor.

"I tried medicine after medicine and made two trips to Hot Springs but nothing gave me more than temporary relief. Some of the medicine I took was so strong it upset my stomach, and I got worse. I started taking Tanlac, and took six bottles and I haven't had a pain since I finished my last bottle nearly a year ago. I went through the last hard winter without a pain. My stomach has been put in good condition also, and I have gained eight pounds. I feel like a different man."

Tanlac is sold in Ada by Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

GOVERNMENT WANTS EUROPEAN POST CARDS

(By the Associated Press)

New York, Sept. 20.—Old picture post cards and photographs of France or Belgium of any of the territory now occupied by the Germans are needed by the War Department according to an open letter written today by William Guggenheim, Chairman of the Army and Navy Committee of the American Defense Society to the American people. This letter which is written at the request of Major A. G. Campbell, of the Military Intelligence Branch of the War Department reads:

"I urge patriotic Americans to forward any picture post cards, photographs and prints of any of the towns and of the country now occupied by the Germans in Belgium and Northern France to the American Defense Society at 44 East 23rd Street, New York City, from where they will be sent to the War Department, as they will be of value to our officers aboard who can familiarize themselves with the appearance of localities toward which they are advancing which will undoubtedly be a distinct aid in military operations.

"I especially urge people who have traveled abroad and who have collected postal cards to carefully sort these with a view to their being used by the War Department. Written description of the territory already mentioned will be of considerable value."

CHEMIST WINS LASTING GRATITUDE

"I tried several doctors and all kinds of medicine, and had about given up all hope of getting better. I did not think it possible that any medicine could be so wonderful in its effect as May's Wonderful Remedy has proven in my case. You sure have won my lasting gratitude. I could not work at all and had constant pain in my stomach before taking your medicine." It is simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co., and Drugists everywhere.

German Sport: Killing Doctors!

In this war the wounded are not objects of pity to the enemy, but future fighting men; doctors and nurses are no longer ministers of mercy, but conservers of the battle strength of the enemy.

The German General Staff, with that strange, remorseless inhuman logic which has made the German psychology a puzzle and a horror to the civilized world, has refused to recognize the age-old immunities of the profession of the art of healing, and has announced that one doctor is to be regarded as the equivalent of 500 soldiers, and one stretcher-bearer as the equal of eight, and have instructed their gunners, snipers and airmen to "Fire one warning shot and then vigorously engage them at once."—Dr. Woods Hutchinson, in the October Red Cross Magazine.

Camphor Plantation.

The first and only bearing camphor plantation of any size in this country is located at Satsuma, Fla., says Popular Science Monthly. It contains over 2,000 acres of camphor trees which last year yielded over 10,000 pounds of crude camphor. This year it is expected the yield will be many times this amount. Florida has several other plantations, which will soon come into bearing.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

THEIR WEDDING FEAST.

"Well, Mrs. Mouse, what do you think of this for a banquet?"

"Ah," said Mrs. Mouse, "you have given me a beautiful feast. You're a wonderful mouse, you are indeed, and I'm a lucky creature to be chosen by you to be Mrs. Mouse in the future."

"Many a mouse is a Mrs. Mouse," said her husband.

"Ah, yes, that may be," said Mrs. Mouse, "but they're not the Mrs. Mouse, wife of the great Mr. Mouse."

"Maybe their wives think as you do—each one thinks hers is best."

"Perhaps so," agreed Mrs. Mouse. "Well, in that case we're all happy, and that's a good thing. But I know, for myself, that I'm the happiest of the lot. I must be."

"Each may think the same," said Mr. Mouse.

"There, there, don't tease me," said Mrs. Mouse. "You are a regular old tease, getting me so confused. Of course lots of those mice wouldn't be happy if they'd married you or I'd married them—but we're a very happy pair, aren't we?" she squealed.

"We are indeed," squealed Mr. Mouse in return. "Yes, it's each to his own liking, for it would be a dreadful thing indeed if every mouse had the same husband and every Mr. Mouse the same wife—oh dear, I'm getting all muddled up—it couldn't be—that's all."

"Let's talk about something else," said Mrs. Mouse. She really wanted to say: "Won't you talk about me and how much you like me," but she didn't quite dare. However, she hinted as hard as she could.

"I'm so sorry I couldn't have had the tailor do better with the pressing of my wedding gown," she said.

"It's exquisitely pressed," said Mr. Mouse, and Mrs. Mouse was very happy to hear that.

"You see," she continued hastily, so the subject wouldn't be changed, "I couldn't let my gown go to the tailor's to be pressed without going too. The tailor took a scamper over my back—which is the way a mouse tailor must do for his customers can't leave their suits and gowns behind them. Yes, he took a scamper over my back, and then he said, 'Well, Mrs. Mouse, that is, Miss Mouse, though soon you will be Mrs. Mouse, just how does that suit you?'"

"And I said, 'Thank you kindly, Mr. Mouse Tailor, it suits me right down to the ground.' That is something I've heard folks say when they mean they're just as pleased as they can be, and besides I'm so near the ground it has more meaning for me than it has for a person whose feet are on the ground, but whose bodies go way, way up in the air, or the rooms, or some where high up!"

"I had the same sort of a pressing for my suit," said Mr. Mouse.

"It looks beautifully," squealed Mrs. Mouse. "How fine this cheese is," she said, munching a good sized piece, for all the time Mr. and Mrs. Mouse were chatting they were nibbling too.

"It is good cheese," agreed Mr. Mouse. "And this box of biscuits is quite tasty too I think."

"What made you think of such a fine banquet, and of such a wonderful place for a banquet?" asked Mrs. Mouse.

"Well, you see," said Mr. Mouse, "I knew I was lucky. Very few mice have had as great an honor as I have in fact I don't think any mouse ever had a more beautiful mouse bride than I have, and so I thought to myself—'she must have the best.'"

"Then I looked about me, and there were two fine driveways or runways or crawlways or scamper-ways to this window corner, and I saw the nice paper boxes of biscuits and the cheese all out—and lots of it! So I said to myself that it was the very place for a sumptuous, magnificent and glorious wedding banquet."

"It's wonderful," said Mrs. Mouse. "Few mice, I'm sure, have had the honor to have their wedding banquet in a grocery store."

For Mr. and Mrs. Mouse were eating in the grocery store. In the front window there was a little corner where they had settled themselves. The boxes hid them from the store keeper and when they saw people stop to look in the window they scampered back into their holes so as not to be seen. One or two did see them but they must have guessed it was their wedding banquet for they never told on them! And Mr. and Mrs. Mouse had all they wanted to eat.

"Thank You Kindly, Mr. Mouse Tailor."

COL. LYNCH APPEALS TO IRISH PATRIOTISM

Dublin, Sept. 20.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—America's entrance into the war should settle the question for Irishmen whether they should voluntarily enlist in the British army, in the opinion of Colonel Arthur Lynch, nationalist and member of parliament, who is engaged in an Irish recruiting campaign.

"Friendship with America should be the deciding factor of all Irish policy," he said to The Associated Press correspondent. "I mention these matters because young Irishmen whom we wish especially to secure have had their minds captivated and in some cases perverted by a propaganda which has its main origin in

OTANI COMMANDS JAP TROOPS IN SIBERIA

Tokio, Sept. 20.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—General Ikkuzo Otani, commander of the expeditionary force of the Entente Allies in Siberia, was one of the Japanese heroes of the battle of the Yalu River fourteen years ago. His staff includes the most brilliant officers of the Japanese army.

During the Chinese war, General Otani, who is 62 years of age, was one of the staff officers in the imperial headquarters at Hiroshima. When the Russo-Japanese war began he, then a major-general, was appointed inspector-general of the twelfth division which belonged to the First Army under General Kuroki who started the world by winning the first victory for Japan in the battle of the Yalu river. Later he became the commander of a brigade, and his courage and superior knowledge in tactics made him a hero of the war.

In one of the battles of the war, General Otani's headquarters was found by the Russians who cross-fired it with a hail of shells. Realizing the danger, one of his staff officers advised him to move. He heard the advice with composure, and rejected it by simply saying: "I can't hear the sound of firing. I'm afraid I've become a little deaf."

General Otani is known as a silent man, like Field Marshal Oyama and Admiral Togo, and he is considered a great tactician. He has an extensive knowledge of mathematics.

Lieutenant-General Mitsuru Yui, the newly appointed chief of staff, has long been known as one of the brightest staff officers of the Japanese army. During the Russo-Japanese war he served as the vice-chief of the staff of the second army under General Oku, and his brilliant tactics in the battle of Heikou, when he defeated two Russian army corps with a single division, is recorded in the history of the war. Lieut.-Gen. Yui is 57 years old.

These Are Cold, Hard Facts

Right now at the beginning of a new season, you'll pay less for better clothes and furnishings than you can possibly get them for later on—a condition without a parallel in the history of the clothing business!

Today's wholesale prices are very much higher than when we bought our fall stocks and they're going up a lot more. Many qualities we have cannot be secured at any price today, and, broadly speaking, qualities from now on will be less and less dependable.

Also there's an indication that there will be a general shortage in all lines of goods that we handle.

Our prices today are lower, our stocks larger, our qualities better than we have any idea of being able to offer again for years! No "bluff" about it either—these are facts.

For your own financial benefit, and to be sure of getting dependable qualities—

To remove white stains made by heat or water from varnished surfaces one method is to apply olive oil or salt. Leave for half an hour, then wipe dry with a soft cloth. It's no use trying to get away from them. There lives not a schoolteacher with soul so dead that the first day of school does not stir it with a new anecdote that aches to be printed. We select this one from the crowd that clamors for recognition.

"What is your name?" asked the teacher of a first-grade pupil at a city school. She was taking the names of all the children for her record. And this child was coy and playful.

"Guess!" he challenged. "It begins with U."

"Ulysses?" guessed the teacher—she could humor him on the first day.

"Nope!" he shouted, gleefully. "Guess again!"

"Ulrich? Ugolino? No? Then I give it up—what is your name?"

"Eugene!" cried the child, triumphantly.

OKLAHOMA CITY DRIVE AIMED AT LOAFERS

Oklahoma City, Ok., Sept. 20.—Promiscuous detention of men to be held for shipment to points where war work is in progress, begun under authority of W. G. Ashton, representing the Federal Labor Department, caused some protest today and local city officials instructed police to quit taking men into custody. Chester Westfall secretary of the State Council of Defense, sent telegrams to county councils explaining that the organization was not responsible for the movement. Adjutant General Gipson also objected on the ground that it was disturbing the men already available for army service.

Mr. Ashton this evening said there might have been a misunderstanding of the orders, that it was only the intention to get the real "loafers" first. He said that when the time came to call for men in the non-essential class of industry this would be done in a reasonable way with the full co-operation of the employers.

Red Cross Clothing Drive For Relief of Belgians

Cablegram From Herbert Hoover to Henry P. Davidson
Henry P. Davidson,
Chairman Red Cross War Council,
Washington, D. C.

The ten million imprisoned people in occupied Belgium and France are facing shame, suffering, disease and some of them death for lack of clothing this winter. They must be helped. I hope that the Red Cross will undertake a renewed campaign to obtain this clothing in America. It can come only from us. Your first campaign yielded magnificent results, bringing in fully 5,000 tons of clothing in good condition. But much more is needed if those war-ravaged people are to get through the winter in decency and safety. In the face of brutal coercion and spiritual suffering they remain splendidly courageous. This courage challenges our charity. Let us match the courage of Belgium by the generosity of America.

HERBERT HOOVER.

The urgent call for used or worn clothing or other clothing that can be spared, will be answered by the people of Ada, most generously during the week of September 23rd to 30th. When it is called to the attention of the people of this community that there are thousands of articles of wearing apparel, in the homes, that can be spared, most of them without much sacrifice, that will be of untold benefit to the destitute people of occupied Belgium and France, I am sure that our people will be glad of the opportunity to give them. Practically every housewife has for years saved lots of just such articles, that were of good material, because they were really too good to throw away, but at the time they had no particular use for them. This opportunity is a glorious reward for their thrift.

Arrangements will be made to gather the articles from all over town by trucks that have been generously donated by firms and individuals, assisted by boys from the schools. The day will be announced later, watch the paper for the day and hour, and go through your stuff NOW and see how much you can spare for the cause.

CHAPTER CONSERVATION COMMITTEE,
E. S. HARAWAY, Chairman.

THE KIND OF GARMENTS NEEDED

Every kind of garment, for all ages and both sexes, is urgently needed. In addition, piece goods—light, warm, cotton flannel, and other kinds of cloth from which to make garments for new born babies, ticking, sheeting, and blankets, woolen goods of any kind—and shoes of every size are asked for. Scrap leather is needed for repairing footwear.

Since the clothes will be subjected to the hardest kind of wear, only garments made of strong and durable materials should be sent. It is useless to offer to any afflicted population garments of flimsy material or gaudy coloring. Make the gifts practical.

Garments need not be in perfect condition. A hundred thousand destitute women in the occupied regions are eager to earn a small livelihood by repairing gift clothing and making new garments adapted to needs with which they are familiar.

DO NOT SEND

Garments of flimsy material or gaudy coloring, such as ball dresses, high heeled slippers, etc. Stiff hats, either men's or women's straw, dress or derby.

Anything containing rubber, raincoats, rubber boots etc. (Rubber heels can easily be removed from shoes).

Books, toys, soap, toilet articles.

Notes or communications of any sort or description positively must not be sent.

ALLIES STRIKE TELLING BLOWS

SUCCESSFUL AT ALL POINTS. WHERE GERMANS INTEND TO MAKE STAND VERY UNCERTAIN.

(Associated Press War Summary)

At no place along the battle line extending from Soissons to Flanders has the enemy been able to resist the Allied armies in sufficient strength to cause a halt in the offensive movement. Germans after repeated defeats at various points have given much ground apparently content to cover their retreat with rear guard actions. Where, if at all, the Germans intend to make a determined stand is still problematical. Failure to counter attack for possession of the Brocourt-Queant switch line gives credence to unofficial reports that still another line is being prepared from Brebieres to Moeuvres.

While great progress continues southeast of Arras, momentous events apparently are impending north of Soissons. General Mangin has been pushing forward here for several days until he now holds the key position to the Vesle front. The Germans have been forced out of the Ailette river sector and Hindenburg line and their main defenses are endangered.

It was unofficially announced from London Tuesday that Lens had been captured by the British, but this turned out to be inaccurate. General Haig in his official report Tuesday night announced that the British had pushed into the western outskirts of the town and had advanced slightly on both sides of it. The advance here is insufficient to make a showing on the map. However, Lens is likely to be abandoned by the Germans at any time.

BRITISH REACH CANAL DU NORD

London, September 4.—In their push beyond the Brocourt-Queant line the British have reached the line of the Canal Du Nord, according to Field Marshall Haig's official statement. North of the Arras-Cambrai road they have occupied the town of Ecourt St. Quentin. North of Peronne the British advanced through the Vaux woods, above Moislans. Continuing their advance in Flanders they are approaching Neuve Chapelle and Laventie.

Progress of British

London, Sept. 4 (1 P. M.)—The British have secured a hold on the west bank of the Canal Du Nord by taking Rumaucourt, which is north of Sains-Les-Marquion, according to advices from the battle front. Farther south along the canal they are reported to have captured Inchy En Artois, Demicourt, to east of Doignies, and Permes three miles northeast of Bertincourt. Near the Somme the British have crossed the canal at Haut Allaines, which is slightly over two miles north of Peronne.

French Continue Drive

Paris, Sept. 4.—The French last night continued to push back the Germans to the east of the Canal Du Nord and between the Ailette and Aisne, says today's official statement. In their advance the French took Chapitree wood northeast of Chevilly and approached the town of Crissoles, three miles north of Noyon. North of the Ailette river, the French reached the outskirts of Coucy-Le-Chateau and Juvincourt. Prisoners to the number of 1,500 were taken. Along the Vesle French parties crossed the river at several points.

S. A. T. C. INSURES FOOTBALL AT E.C.S.N.

During the past several months it has been a question with the Normal school authorities as to whether or not it would be advisable to try to have football this fall. They realize that many of the boys would be called to the army. It was questionable whether there would be material to make a team. However, with the establishment of the Students' Army Training Corps and the further fact that the government is encouraging athletics in school, it is planned to take up this important form of athletic activity this fall. Professor R. S. Newcomb, who succeeds Glen Clark as head of the mathematics and athletic coach, will have charge of the team. Professor Newcomb has had good training in athletics. He was boy scout leader one year at Springfield, Mo., and was also boy play director at the State Normal school. While he was superintendent of schools at Marshfield, Mo., he coached the high school football team and for two years he had the best high school football team in South Missouri, defeating Carthage, Aurora, and Springfield High school teams. With the hearty backing that he will receive, and the old-time "pep" of the players, it is believed that he will develop a winning team.

MASS MEETING CALLED TONIGHT

WILL DISCUSS MATTER OF STUDENTS' ARMY TRAINING CORPS AT NORMAL.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce met at the News office this morning to discuss with President Gordon the Students' Army Training Corps to be organized at the Normal school. It is realized that not only will the training corps be helpful to the Normal but it will be a distinct asset to the town. Ada has done her work nobly in Liberty Loan subscriptions, war savings stamps, Red Cross, and Y. M. C. A. work. It is felt, however, that a company of real United States soldiers in her midst would be an inspiration such as practically nothing else could be. Furthermore, the young men of Ada who join the army will soon go across the water in all probability. It will be a distinct advantage to them to spend as much time as possible in their home town while they receive their training for work overseas.

It was agreed in the conference that the matter is of so much interest and importance that the entire town would like to know the details. It was suggested that a mass meeting be called at the court house tonight in which a full discussion would be had of the matter. Secretary O. N. Walker will see to it that the court room is seated. Every man and woman interested, either from the standpoint of the town or from the standpoint of their own sons or brothers who are soon to be called to the army are invited to be present. The meeting will be called at 8:30 tonight.

37 YOUNG MEN GO TO CAMP LOGAN

This (Wednesday) afternoon the following thirty-seven young men from Pontotoc county entrained at Ada for Camp Logan, Houston, Tex., where they will be inducted into military service. Besides these Leonard Fox and Louis Earthman went from other places where they had been transferred, making the quota complete.

Eels for Canning.

Canned and oiled eels are new enterprises talked of in Japanese fishing circles, as these fish are found almost everywhere along the coast. At present only a limited amount of each year's catch is eaten, by far the larger proportion being used for fertilizer.

WHY THE NEWS IS SHORT.

Owing to wire trouble and the fact that the government was using them this afternoon the News failed to receive about a third of its usual amount of telegraph dispatches today, hence the shortage in this line.

We don't know how you pronounce Foch, but we know it is not bosh.

The Hindenburg line has cracked in several places. There will not be any such line in another fortnight.

If Colonel House goes to London as minister, it is certain he will not talk too much. He is one House who gives out no mysterious sounds.

The selection of L. A. Ellison as the leader for the next Liberty Loan drive will meet the approval of the citizens of the county. In fact, there are few men in the county more capable of handling this big job or more popular with the people as a whole. That the drive will be successful goes without saying.

CONSECRATE OURSELVES.

The news that an East Central Normal boy and a resident of this county has met his death on the field of honor comes as a shock to the entire county. It is true we have been expecting such news for some time, but the reality is no wise lessens the grief. To the bereaved parents and brothers and sisters of this young man, Charles W. Cottingham, we extend the sympathy of the citizenship of the county so far as we are permitted to speak for that citizenship. He has paid the price, has given his life for the county and the other citizens of the county may live in peace and happiness. He has lived nobly and has died nobly. What more could be asked for in this life? What more is there to life after all?

From time to time we may expect to hear that some of the boys have died as nobly and as heroically, with hundreds of young men in the army from this county, we cannot expect all of them to get back. We can, however, consecrate ourselves and our means to putting forever out of existence the menace to the world, the German army. Until that is done, until the German Emperor atones for the crimes he has committed, we must work and fight. The end is certain, but it is not yet in sight. It may be months, it may be years, but the task we have undertaken because it is right will be finished.

To young men like Charlie Cottingham the world will pay respect long after all of us have gone our way to other worlds.

J. T. CUMBLE IN JAIL ON CONSPIRACY CHARGE

Oklahoma City, Ok., Sept. 4.—J. T. Cumble, socialist candidate for governor of Oklahoma in 1910, was brought to Oklahoma City this morning from Muskogee and is held in the county jail on a charge of conspiracy to violate the draft law. Federal authorities said they were not ready yet to announce where and when the alleged violations of the law took place.

Cumble lives in Garvin county near Lindsay and has been an active agitator in the state for several years. Federal officers here say that he has been under surveillance for several weeks but was arrested only recently.

Cumble was nominated by the socialists as their candidate for governor in 1910 and made the race against Lee Cruce, democrat, and Joseph McNeal, republican. He received 24,707 votes in the general election.

WILL USE AIRPLANES FOR EXPLORING

London, Sept. 4.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Airplanes will be widely used, after the war, for purpose of exploration and survey, said Harold Brighouse, of the Royal Geographical Society, to a representative of The Associated Press, commenting on the announcement that Captain Amundsen's Arctic expedition, which has just sailed, has taken three airplanes as part of its equipment.

"Captain Amundsen will use these airplanes for geographical and meteorological research in the Arctic," said Mr. Brighouse, "and they should prove very useful in this connection. With peace will come a large extension of the use of the airplane in exploration."

"There is no reason why the remotest parts of Africa or the upper waters of the Amazon should remain unexplored. Aerial photography has reached a stage when all that is necessary for exact map-drawing is a continuous series of fair-photographs. Tracts of Portuguese East Africa, which had never before been charted, were, in fact, mapped by means of the air photography of British aviators."

"The undiscovered natural resources of a new country can be observed from airplanes. The eye of the observer reveals much; the air camera even now is an excellent guide in indicating the kind of wood growing in a forest, and will be of greater utility still as the development of aerial color photograph progresses."

"Railway survey through savage lands, which, both in life and money, has been a tremendously costly preliminary to construction, will become safe, and so cheap as to present no financial obstacles whatever, to a survey which uses aerial photography."

"Not only can the course of rivers be traced, but their navigable channels can be ascertained, and the combined discovery made of valuable natural products together with the best means of transporting them by river."

"Water, then as now, will probably be the explorer's chief guide and his machine is more likely to be of the seaplane type, with floats than the airplane type, with wheels. He will fly high, and should he have to make a forced landing, will steer for lake and river rather than for the rare open spaces of a tropical forest."

"For the air explorer, the romance of flying will persist; the value of the work will do so obvious; and there are many pilots in the allied armies today who will find in aerial exploration play for the typically British spirit of adventure."

"In the future of aviation there is elbow room for all, the sportsman-pilot will find in exploration by air an enterprise made to his taste."

ANOTHER ADA BOY WHO IS MAKING GOOD

In the Oklahoma of Monday appeared a picture of Lieut. Longley Fentem, son of Prof. and Mrs. A. L. Fentem of this city and the following notice of this young man's career:

"Longley Fentem, an Ada boy, has the distinction of having gone into the army as a huck private and going to second lieutenant in eight months, without going through an officers' training camp. He enlisted and entered service in the medical corps last autumn. He was promoted to first class private in a short time, and this summer jumped to second lieutenant. He is now registrar at the hospital at Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga., and expects to sail for France in a few days."

Music Lovers Amazed by Edison's Daring Test

All told 2,000,000 music lovers on more than 1500 different occasions have gone to one of their local theatres filled with curiosity regarding a startlingly novel musical recital which they were about to witness.

In each case they have come away amazed at the almost unbelievable demonstration which had taken place before their very eyes, and ears—the most daring test of a phonograph or talking machine ever made. They saw a noted Edison artist stand beside

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

They heard the instrument sing in the artist's voice—in other words, Recreate her voice. Presently the artist herself began to sing note for note with the instrument. Musically trained ears strove in vain to distinguish the faintest shade of difference between the actual voice and the Re-Creation. Then, suddenly and without warning, the artist ceased singing, leaving the instrument to continue the air alone. Only by watching the artist's lips did the audience know that she had ceased singing and that they heard the instrument alone. This is the famous Edison Tone Test.

Only Edison makes this test. Only Edison can make this test, because only the New Edison actually Re-creates the human voice and the music of human-played instruments with every tone quality and every shade of expression. Ordinary phonographs, and talking machines, merely reproduce.

If you have not been fortunate enough, to witness an Edison Tone Test, you may at least hear Edison's wonderful new phonograph at our store. Make the time to suit your convenience.

DEFENSE COUNCIL TO AID DRAFT BOARDS

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 4.—(Special)—In order to expedite the classification of men who will register under the new draft law the Oklahoma State Council of Defense has instructed all county councils to consult with the draft boards on enlarging the legal advisory boards of all local boards. To this end from five to twenty-five men will be added to the boards to take care of the needs of registrants in making out questionnaires and in giving other advice. The new appointees need not be law-ymers.

SCHOOL TEACHER NEEDED BRAINS

"I never have had such a 'God-send' come to me as when I took the first dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I was afraid I would have to give up my school because of severe stomach, liver and bowel trouble which caused such a pressure of gas that I could not use my brain at times, and my heart would palpitate awfully. Since taking a treatment of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy a year ago, all this has disappeared." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co., and Druggists everywhere.

DEPENDENTS TO GET PROMPT HEARING NOW

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 4.—(Special)—The long delays which have attended the receipt of news of delinquent allotments, allowances and insurance policies by soldiers' families and other dependents will be avoided in the future. This will be accomplished by the establishment of a district headquarters at Dallas, Tex., for the Bureau of War Risk Insurance of the U. S. Treasury Department. Due to the pressure of business following the application of millions of soldiers for allowances, al-lotments and life insurance the Washington office was flooded and many dependents in Oklahoma failed to receive their checks for months after they were due. The Home Service Section of the Red Cross has handled these cases of late. Governor Williams has been officially advised that henceforth such cor-respondence will be handled through the Dallas office where quicker ac-tion may be had.

THIS AGED WOMAN

Was Made Strong by a Simple Rem-edy. The following letter from Mrs. Wells adds another link to the great chain of evidence which proves that there is nothing equal to Vinol to create strength for feeble, weak, rundown nervous conditions. Malone, N. Y.—"I am 84 years of age and got into a feeble, weak and nervous condition so I could not sleep. Vinol has not only built up my strength, but it has given me a good appetite and I sleep all right now."—Mrs. S. B.

Economy and better cooking with MAZOLA

AMERICA has recently discovered a wonderfully pure, wholesome oil for all cooking and salad uses—Mazola, the sweet, nutritious oil from Indian Corn—that gives energy, work-power and endurance.

Mazola makes fried and sautéed dishes more delicious—and much more digestible—than butter or lard. It doesn't burn easily and never takes up flavors and odors of cooking—not even fish or onions.

It is wonderful for shortening. Many housewives prefer it to butter. Mazola is an oil. It doesn't have to be melted. Quantities can be measured exactly—save time, prevent waste.

There is no better or more delicate salad oil anywhere. Mazola isn't a substitute for olive oil. It has a delicious flavor all its own. Costs less than half as much as olive oil.

Be economical—use Mazola. Save fat, save money, and give the family better food and better tasting food than ever.

Mazola is always uniform. Its preparation is scientific and exact.

For sale in pints, quarts and gallons. The large sizes are especially economical. Get a can from your grocer today.

Crullers or Doughnuts

- 1 cup of sugar
 - 2 eggs
 - 2 tablespoons Mazola
 - 2 cups of flour
 - 2 cups of milk
 - 2 cups of soda
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 - 1/2 cup nutmeg
- Flour enough to make a soft dough that can be rolled. Cut in shape and fry in hot Mazola.

There is a valuable Cook Book for Mazola users. It shows you how to fry, sauté, make dressings and sauces more delicious, make light, digestible pastry. Should be in every home. Send for it or ask your grocer. FREE.

WEEKLY NEWSLETTER FROM CAMP TRAVIS

Camp Travis, Tex., Sept. 3.—There has grown up on the western edge of Camp Travis a mushroom village which in unique picturesqueness would do credit to the most imaginative writer of "wild-west" "movie" plays. The village consists of two rows of low frame buildings, all facing the east, toward Camp Travis, each row extending over about four blocks. The streets are not noticeable for their straightness, the buildings seem to have been unable to come to an agreement as to any line or angle on which to arrange their buildings. Co-operation is in evidence to the extent that all are connected by a broad board walk, but the size height and angle of the walk was left to the individual taste of the owners. Each shack has its own flaring sign and each one that is painted has its own favorite color, but some have not gone in for paint at all.

ing the east, toward Camp Travis, each row extending over about four blocks. The streets are not noticeable for their straightness, the buildings seem to have been unable to come to an agreement as to any line or angle on which to arrange their buildings. Co-operation is in evidence to the extent that all are connected by a broad board walk, but the size height and angle of the walk was left to the individual taste of the owners. Each shack has its own flaring sign and each one that is painted has its own favorite color, but some have not gone in for paint at all.

But the village is "wild-west" in appearance only. It is composed entirely of cold drink stands, restaurants, vaudeville shows, shooting galleries, photography shops, skating rinks, etc. In the rear row are more substantial buildings, the big new Salvation Army Hut, the Baptist Chapel, the new Methodist Soldier Church, a theatre and a hotel. But the gambling dens of the old west are notably absent, and the thirteenth emporiums handle nothing stronger than Innocent Bevo.

It requires no pass for a soldier from Camp Travis to visit "Parade Rest," as the village is called, and as a result the rookie can see almost any kind of diversion he likes while not on duty. Also he is saved the expense of twenty cents care fare to San Antonio every time he has a hankering to see a show or to attend a dance. The religious organizations at the village are having a phenomenal success and are helping the new men soon to feel at home in the Camp. Practically everything a soldier desires can be bought at the village, and he is said to the credit of the proprietors, there is little evidence of profiteering. The young people from the city also entertain their soldier friends at the church buildings, and all in all Parade Rest has become a very popular place with the Camp Travis men.

The village is under the observation of the city and military authorities at all times and nothing of detriment to the soldier is allowed to flourish.

Plants for the organization of the 18th Division at Camp Travis are rapidly taking shape. The 19th and 35th Infantry regiments of the regular army are already in camp and will form the nucleus on which the new division will be formed. These regiments of men already trained will furnish a number of non-commissioned officers for each of the new companies to be formed. A number of privates will be transferred to the new organizations also, and in this manner it is thought the new division will be more quickly and thoroughly trained than it could be in any other way. With experienced men from captain to privates in each company, the new recruits should be able to catch military matters in a hurry.

Special orders have been issued that new men be subjected to no strenuous drill at first. The man of sedentary occupation especially is to be kept in mind, and the hardening process is to be gradual. As it is the recruits do most of their drilling in the cool of the morning, starting at it about sun-up, while the afternoon is given mostly to lectures, signal practice and games.

No man is going to be worked beyond his strength, every man is going to have abundant good food, and every reasonable pleasure and recreation, but military training will be the first thing always.

Prayer Meeting.

The prayer service with the congregation of the First Presbyterian church this evening will be one of interest to all who may find it possible to attend. The pastor will be in charge and will give a short address on "The Voice of God in Nature." The service will be but forty-five minutes long, and the members and friends of the congregation will do well to be present in this first service for the fall work of the church. Let us do our part in winning the war by "keeping the home fires burning" briskly in our spiritual centres.—George Wesley Beck, Pastor.

Storming the Kaiser.

'Tis a great commotion in the swells of ocean, German cheeks are blanching at the sight. Bells are loudly ringing, girls are gaily singing, true hearts proudly beating for their rights. Hurray! brave boys, go ahead and fight, Hurray! now don't you think it's fair? The Kaiser is a gonner, the Kaiser is a gonner. The Yanks are going to occupy his chair. Look over yonder, don't you see the dark cloud, looks as if we're going to have a storm. Don't you be mistaken, that's Pershing's regiment buttons shining on their uniform. BILL WINDER.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

From Reuben H. Carver.
San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 18.

Dear Wirt:
I guess that you wonder where I am. I am now at Camp Presidio in San Francisco. We got here last Friday evening about 4:30. Had a 72 hours trip and rode over 1900 miles. It was some ride.

We went through Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California. At El Paso, Tex., we could see the mountains in Old Mexico. We went through hundreds of miles of almost nothing but sand and dwarfish bushes. I saw many pretty views while crossing the Rocky Mountains and went through 15 tunnels before we got to Frisco, some of them over a mile in length. We rode about 100 miles along the Pacific coast in sight of the ocean. It sure was a pretty view. I have also seen the golden gate. We are stationed right on the north coast of San Francisco bay and can stand in the door of our barracks and see the ships come and go from the ocean. I haven't seen the largest ships yet as most of them are on the Atlantic. We passed by one shipyard and saw them building steel merchant ships. We all went down town last night and saw some of the sights and went to the show and to think I did not get lost. Now what do you think? I have learned a little since joining the army. I think I will go through China town one night this week, also to Golden Gate Park. This makes four letters I have written so my hand is getting tired.

I guess you are preparing to start your school now. Schools are already going on in California.

Well this is a great place. I will write more about it next time. I like it better all the time.

We filled out our qualification cards today and I was asked if I wanted to go across and I said I sure do. I like to travel. I will write again the last of the week. I am fine and have the best of health.

Your brother,
REUBEN H. CARVER,
Presidio, San Francisco, Calif., care

The Ada Evening News.
Editor and Friends:—I have the privilege of writing you again. And first will say, I am proud my letters have been published as they have, by the News. I read the News, and find my name appears as a soldier among the many, and am also proud of it in many ways. Yet there was a dread and a large one, though am in hopes of that dread ceasing in a way this afternoon as I met 7:00 O. C. train for Mrs. Ethora Hayes.

For training the climate is favorable and for sleeping it is better at night. We had a nice rain three or four days ago which cheered most every one as it made squads right and squads left much easier, for a fresh breeze sure helps.

And I guess the mess sergeant is about right when he said the company is getting larger, as they all seem to be fattening.

Will close for this time and try to write more next week.

Respectfully one and all,
EARNEST H. HAYES,
Co. 36, 9th Bn., 165th D. B. Camp
Travis, Texas.

GREAT SLUMP IN COTTON PROSPECTS

Washington, Sept. 4.—A disaster unparalleled in the history of the cotton growing industry in the United States has befallen the American cotton crop this year. As the result of a severe drought in July and August, the government's September cotton report, issued today, forecasts the prospective production this year at 11,137,000 equivalent 500-pound bales, 4,000,000 bales less than was forecast at the beginning of the season.

Cotton growers planted this year the second largest acreage on record and prospects seemed bright for one of the largest crops grown. Drought during July, however, reduced the crop by 1,616,000 bales, and dry weather in August caused the greatest deterioration ever recorded in a single month, there being a decline of 17.9 points in the condition August 25, as compared with July 25.

The entire cotton belt was affected, but in Texas and Oklahoma and the western part of the region it was greater than in the east. The extent of the depreciation amounted to 2,482,000 bales, reducing the prospective production to 11,137,000 bales. A crop of that size would be slightly smaller than those of the last three years.

DAN ROGERS NOT COURT MARTIALED

In some inexplicable way a rumor gained currency that Dan Rogers of Ada had been court martialed. The following cable was received today: London, Sept. 4, 1918. Cliff Rogers, Ada, Okla. Have not been court martialed. Am all right. Love. 10-25 A. M. DAN ROGERS.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

(Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side...")

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists. NO-123
